

The GREEN Business Journal gives voice to industries nationwide intent on creating a sustainable future.

In our book, GREEN stands for Green technology, Recycling, Energy, Environment and NetZero – the challenges, the research and the breakthroughs.

The GREEN Business Journal is a reliable source of news and updates about the rules, regulations and developments relevant to businesses involved in the all important race to NetZero.

In short, GREEN provides a new platform for making connections in the most acute, time-sensitive challenge facing the world today.
